The National Congress of Italian-Canadians Foundation (Eastern Ontario Outaouais District) Inc., with the co-operation of the National Congress of Italian-Canadians (National Capital District) are very pleased to announce that in this academic year 2020-2021, along with the well-established annual Giovanni Caboto Scholarship Awards, a new scholarship, named the Giovanna Panico Undergraduate Bursary, open solely to students of Carleton University, will be awarded for the first time. These bursaries differ from the Giovanni Caboto Awards not only in the commemoration, but also in that they are not limited to Ontario residents (e.g. students residing in Quebec can also apply).
